

Chris Ashton

Personal Resume

2789 Ray Lawyer dr apt #8 Placerville, CA 95667

Home: (530) 919-0757 ashton.chris33@gmail.com@gmail.com

Education

November 1998-November 1999	Foothill College Palo Alto California	Certificate in Paramedicine
-----------------------------	--	-----------------------------

Employment History

December 2005 – October 2012 Employment	River and Rock Adventures	Coloma, CA
--	---------------------------	------------

Full Time Co-Owner and Operations Manager- Responsibilities included maintaining optimal public relationships. Training staff members in customer service, swift water rescue, meal preparation, time management, group operations, cooperate team building, and money management. Provided environmental education opportunities to 7th and 8th grade students in California. Staff employment in addition to termination of employment as deemed necessary. Responsible for executive tasks regarding payroll, risk management, retention, quality control, and marketing.

December 2005 – September 2012	Zozo's Ristorante	Reno, NV
--------------------------------	-------------------	----------

Part Time Restaurant Manager- Responsibilities included staff scheduling, server checkouts and financial transactions. Front of the house management, including optimal customer service and hosting. Maintained smooth operation of seating customers, managing wait staff and assistant busing staff. Responsible for wine and alcohol orders, "to go" orders, and maintaining relationships between kitchen and wait staff.

August 2003 – December 2005	Mono County Emergency Medical Services (EMS)	Bridgeport, CA
-----------------------------	---	----------------

Full time Paramedic- Responsible for patient care, stabilization of patients, and patient transportation. Management of heightened emotions surrounding trauma and family to control scene at arrival in the best interest of the patient. In lieu of paramedic responsibilities, also responsible for firefighting duties. Including, structural and wild-land firefighting, vehicle extrication, back country search and rescue, and "over the side" ropes extrication.

January 2000-August 2003	Regional Emergency Medical Services Authority (REMSA)	Reno, NV
--------------------------	--	----------

Full time Paramedic and Head Preceptor- In addition to the above responsibilities listed as a Paramedic, responsible for supervising and mentoring student paramedics. Educating students in protocols, policy and procedure. Responsible for training newly hired paramedics for the company. Also, responsible for developing a policy and procedure program for training newly hired EMT-2 staff. Responsible for hiring other supervisors to train newly hired staff.

References available upon request